REPLY TO RESTRICTION REQUIREMENT

Sir:

Please enter the following amendments in the specification and claims. A marked-up version is provided after each clean version. Additions are double-underlined, while deletions are in bracket.

In the specification:

On page 16, please replace the paragraph starting at line 7 with:

Mammalian Kip1 sequences, and comparison with Cip1/WAF1. A, Amino acid sequences deduced from Kip1 cDNAs from mink (mk), mouse (m) and human (h). Identical amino acids are indicated by dots. The available mink sequence is incomplete at the C-terminus. Peptide sequences obtained from purified Kip1 are underlined. Thick
